Press release

Appointment at Crédit Agricole Private Equity

Christopher Underwood joins Mezzanis, the mezzanine business unit of Crédit Agricole Private Equity, as Director.

Mr Underwood began his career in 1995 at SV&GM, the former consulting entity of the Salustro Reydel group, where he was in charge of financial valuations and post-merger reorganisations.

In 1999, he joined PricewaterhouseCoopers as a confirmed manager within the Transaction Services practice, where he performed financial and operational due diligence assignments.

From 2003 until 2008, he served as senior project officer within the Leverage Finance department of IXIS CIB (now Natixis), where he originated, structured and distributed LBO deals.

Christopher Underwood, age 37, is a graduate of Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Rouen and holds an MBA degree from the University of Toronto.
